Position Duties and Responsibilities:
This position is located in the Employment and Training Administration (ETA), Office of Financial and Administrative Management (OFAM), Office of Human Resources (OHR). OHR is responsible for providing policy direction and technical assistance in administering a comprehensive personnel, organizational, employee development and technical training, and employee and labor relations assistance for ETA. We are looking for an individual who will enjoy working in a very active, mission driven, agency where you will have everyday contacts with high-level management. Since you will often deal with executive-level management officials, your communication and customer service skills must be excellent. You should also be creative and a risk taker, who is always looking for ways to improve and streamline. Equally as important as the responsibilities outlined above, are values such as honesty, loyalty, patience, integrity and the ability to support and respect your management, peers and team members. Serves as consultant and technical expert for recruitment and placement, and in cooperation with the Personnel Officer, resolves conflicts in highly technical and complex HR staffing issues. Work includes the development of regulatory, supplemental, procedural and similar guidelines for staffing and recruitment. Advises on the full range of recruitment and placement services, which includes recruitment, staffing, developing policy, preparing reports, memoranda and briefs on highly technical staffing issues; evaluates the effectiveness of current staffing programs and policies and makes modifications, where necessary. Provides technical advice and guidance and recommendations to the OHR staff in resolving the most difficult and controversial recruitment and placement problems, including defining issues, determining applicable procedures, laws, or regulations and identifying the most effective approach and technique to validate the correctness and priority of actions taken. Provides technical guidance and leadership to the various ETA offices in the coordination, administration, and development of various staffing assignments initiated as a result of new philosophies and concepts from the Personnel Officer and the Assistant Secretary for ETA.

Provides leadership, advice and guidance to ETA's executive-level management officials, with a focus on staffing policy interpretations, issues and problems, especially complex and important operation problems. Represents ETA on inter and intra-agency working-groups tasked with managing, streamlining, and improving staffing operations.

Analyzes trends and forecasts changes in workplace requirements that will meet future mission demands and develops and implements agency-wide policy on workforce, downsizing and reshaping. Conducts special studies that include compiling and preparing reports and conducting necessary research.

Recommends innovative methods and strategies to resolve problems of job turnovers of long and short term workforce planning, and downsizing initiatives while ensuring their correctness and priority of the actions taken. Prepares decision papers that identify viable options to ensure that systemic problems are sufficiently addressed.

Responsible for troubleshooting and resolving the most difficult and complex problems associated with comprehensive recruitment and placement services for ETA.

Qualification Requirements: (Applicants must meet qualification, legal, and regulatory requirements for the position by closing date of this vacancy announcement.)

To be eligible, applicants must have at least one (1) year of specialized experience that equipped the applicant with the particular knowledge, skills, and abilities to perform successfully the duties of the position, and that is typically in or related to the work of the position to be filled. Specialized experience must be equivalent to the GS-13 level in the Federal Service.

*ICTAP (Interagency Career Transition Assistance Program candidates): Applicants applying for special selection priority under 5 CFR Part 330 Subparts C or G (ICTAP), must be well qualified and submit proof of eligibility, i.e., RIF separation notice, certificate of expected separation, or other agency certification that you are in a surplus occupation; submit the last or current performance rating of record of at least fully successful or equivalent; apply for a vacancy at or below the grade level from which separated; file an application for a specific vacancy within the time frame indicated in the announcement; and be well qualified for the position.
